GIRL BOUND BY ROBBER.

Representating himself to be a real estate agent, a young man of businesslike appearance and well dressed gained access to the home of Summerfield Mc-Lean a wealthy Brooklyn publisher yesterday and while Miss Beatrice Masten, your pocket. Call and be convinced. Look them be suddenly overpowered her, cound her arms and legs with picture wire, tied a rag over her mouth and then leisurely searched the house for valuables. It was nearly an hour before the unconscious young woman was discovered. She was suffering so from shock that she was hardly able to tell what had happened. The room was in wild confusion, showing that the robber had searched everywhere for valuables. He got away with jewelry and silverware worth $1,000.

WOMAN IN HOUSE OF COMMONS The climax of the suffragette campaign was reached in London last night, when an enormous mob hemmed in the bouses of parliament and stopped traffic in all streets leading to Westminister. For more than three bours the crowds schiffled goodnaturedly with the police, interfered with theategoers, broke win-dows and generally disorganized things in the center of London. Mrs. Travers Symons, formerly secretary to James Keir Hardie, the socialist and independent member of parliament, reached the door of the house of commons by srategy. The house was solemnly de-bating a bill to prevent children from cigeratte smoking, when the woman dashed by the doorkeeper to a position in front of the speaker's chair and should shrilly, "Leave off discussing children and talk about women." Three officials seized Mrs. Symons and corried her out bodily. She was then led to the outer door and dismissed.

THE BALKAN SITUATION. Advices from French offici al source indicate that the danger point in the Balkans has shifted back to Bulgaria. While it is officially denied by Bulgarian officials that any ultimatum has been sent to Turkey regarding the recognition of her independence, there is reason to believe that Bulgaria is determined to make a move, if Turkey and the powers persist in their refusal to accept her in-

It is believed that if the Bulgarian army crosses the Turkish frontier, Great Britain will land troops for the protection of Constantinople. The danger of a declaration of war from Servia is considered over for the present. The French government has decided to leave Servia's demand for compensation from Austria-Hungary to the consideration of the powers.

ASSAULTED BY A NEGRO.

Miss Perrl Tucker, aged 16, while picking cotton in a field near her home in the vicinity of Charlotte, N. C., yes terday, was attacked by a negro in the woods near Concord. Pointing a pistol at her, the man told her he would kill her if she told of his crime, and disap-peared after trying to mislead her as to his identity by saying his name was Henry Faggott.

Salisbury officers were notified, and, with the help of a posse of 700 citizens, which quickly was formed, a suspect was captured an hour after the crime was committed. He gave his name as Will Grabam, but the jid was too peryous from the shock to say positively whether he was the assailant.

Police Chief Boger succeeded in getting the negro into an automobile, and, followed by a frenzied mob which had grown to 2,000, got his prisoner to a place of safety.
